

NOYES DENIES STORY

Washington Not Preparing to Fight Johnson.

ALLEGED COMPACT A MYTH

Report from Chicago That Nationals Have Joined with Boston, White Sox, and Cleveland to Oust Ban Is Without Foundation—Comiskey Is Likely to Continue His Fight.

The criteria of Western baseball writers who are devoting columns to boosting an alleged compact among certain American League moguls to oust Ban Johnson, received another blow yesterday when President Tom Noyes, of the Washington club, denied absolutely that the local owners have entered into any agreement to wage a war against the president of the league.

A long special from Chicago to one of the New York papers goes so far as to state that the representatives of the Chicago, Cleveland, Boston, and Washington clubs have entered into a conspiracy to depose Johnson, and that the four magnates except to get one more owner, thereby making a majority, and attack Johnson at the meeting of the league which opens in Chicago next Wednesday.

Washington Not Concerned. While he was not in a position to say just what stand the other clubs will take, President Noyes said that, so far as Washington is concerned, the question of disposing of Johnson has not even been seriously considered, and so far as a four-cornered agreement is concerned, the story from Chicago is without the slightest foundation.

That Charlie Comiskey, of the White Sox, will continue to attack Johnson there is little doubt. There is no secret about the enmity between the president of the league and the owner of the Chicago club; but it is doubtful if Cleveland and Boston will go so far as to join the anti-Johnson forces, particularly at this time, when there is no one in view who could hope to fill the position of chief executive of the younger major league.

Every club in the American League made money last year, and so long as this continues Johnson will stand pretty well with the majority of those who have money invested in the American League.

Feeling Breaks Out Anew.

Comiskey has been at sword's point with Johnson on several previous occasions, because of the fact that Johnson has been fearless enough to suppress rowdy ball playing by the Sox.

The feud was patched up last winter and the two men appeared to be as friendly as ever, but with the failure of the Sox to win the pennant again this year, came another outbreak from Comiskey, usually a level-headed and conservative manager.

President Farrell, the owner of the New York club, when asked what he knew about the opposition to Johnson, said with much emphasis:

"I believe there is some slight friction, but there is no basis for it. Johnson has always been on the level and has practically made the American League."

The New York club's attitude is interesting for the fact that without this city the American League would not exist to mount a movement.

It was the energy of Johnson that secured the financial backing of Farrell for the club.

The Philadelphia, St. Louis and Detroit clubs are all advocates of Johnson, for their owners say that Johnson has done great work.

TEAMS READY FOR FRAY.

Fort Monroe Will Face Navy on Gridiron To-day.

The Fort Monroe and Navy teams had their last practice yesterday, preparatory to the game this afternoon at National Park, and both teams are reported to be in the best of shape.

The navy eleven lined up against the Dolphin and Hospital teams alternately, and successfully worked both the on-side kick and forward pass. The navy added to their figure that the fort team is going to have a hard time stopping the sailors when they resort to these tactics in the game to-day.

The fort team will arrive in Washington this morning on the Norfolk boat in charge of Lieut. Thompson. The soldiers have defeated some strong teams on the fort and exposition grounds this fall and are confident of taking the measure of the sailors.

The game will commence at 3 o'clock and Lieut. Nichols, of the navy, will referee. The game will be regulation 35 minute halves. Navy will line-up as follows:

CORCORAN ARE VICTORIOUS.

Alexandria Basket-ball Team Is Swamped by Big Score.

The crippled Alexandria Athletic Association quint were overwhelmingly beaten by the fast Corcoran Cadet five last night at the National Guard gym, 71 to 5.

The Virginia team was minus four of its regular players, this accounting for its poor showing against the Washington aggregation. Casanova, the big guard of the Corcoran outfit, was in the show from the start, his twelve goals being the record so far this season. Gray, for Alexandria, and Hunter, for the winners, also showed up well. Line-up:

Corcoran—Leach and Heron, Hunter and Coleman, Clark, Casanova, and Givens. The big guard of the Corcoran outfit, was in the show from the start, his twelve goals being the record so far this season. Gray, for Alexandria, and Hunter, for the winners, also showed up well. Line-up:

CHOOSE ALL-AMERICAN TEAM.

Cornell to Suggest that Selection Be Made Official.

Ithaca, Dec. 6.—The selection of an all-American football team by a subcommittee of the Intercollegiate football rules committee will be suggested by Cornell's representative on that body if the present plans of the students mature.

The Cornell Sun, the official organ of the undergraduate body, has declared for this proposition editorially. It calls for a committee of three to make the selection of an all-Eastern and all-Western and an all-American team, and for the incorporation of their selections in the rule book, thus making them official.

Prof. C. V. P. Young, head of the department of physical culture and a former Cornell quarter back, originated this plan last year.

BALDWIN-KEYS BOUT A DRAW.

Conqueror of Kid Sullivan Breaks Even in Twelve-round Game.

Waterbury, Conn., Dec. 6.—Matty Baldwin and Bert Keys fought twelve rounds to a draw here to-night, and while no decision was given, honors were even.

The presence of the chief of police, all the detectives, and half of the regular force made the opening rounds a little slow, but after the seventh the pair broke loose and gave the audience a taste of the fighting that the town used to have before the blue laws were resurrected.

Baldwin forced the fighting and took advantage of the rule of one hand free in the clinches. Keys appeared to be stalling until the seventh when he rocked the Boston man's head with three or four fierce uppercuts.

The eighth was another hugging exhibition. The ninth was a whirlwind exhibition with Keys all over Baldwin at its finish. Baldwin had his innings in the tenth and eleventh with Keys eagerly mixing it, and the final period saw both men strong and vigorous in open fighting.

Matty Baldwin is the boy who was awarded the decision over Kid Sullivan in their bout before the Eureka Athletic Club in Baltimore recently.

KID MCCOY TO THE FORE.

Wants to Fight Tom Sharkey for $10,000 Side Bet.

New York, Dec. 6.—Tom Sharkey's statement that he would fight Tommy Burns with four months' notice and bet $10,000 on the side that he would win has stirred up some of the other veteran heavyweights who have been in retirement since Jeffries put nearly all of them away.

Among them is the versatile Kid McCoy, who, always on the lookout for a good thing, said to-day that he would fight Sharkey on the terms named for a mill with Burns.

McCoy said that he would take the same time to train, and that he was positive that he could out it over the sailor. With McCoy jumping in the front, it will not be at all surprising if Corbett and Fitzsimmons are heard from.

WHISTLER WINS ON POINTS

Veteran Light-weight Gets Decision Over Scroggs.

Match Before Broadway Athletic Club of Baltimore Goes Limit of Fifteen Rounds.

Special to The Washington Herald. Baltimore, Md., Dec. 6.—Billy Whistler, the veteran light-weight, outpointed Harry Scroggs in a fifteen-round battle before the Broadway Athletic Club to-night.

Whistler was the cleverer of the pair, and, despite his poor condition, made a show of Scroggs, though he did not administer any punishment to the local boy. Whistler was bogged down, while Scroggs seemed to be in the best of condition.

At the end of the contest neither of the boys showed the effects of the mulling. The agreement of clean breaks put Scroggs to a disadvantage, as the style favored Whistler.

The match created much interest here, Whistler was the favorite in betting at 10 to 5. Whistler was at least twenty pounds the heavier.
